

MUNICH LECTURES BY
PETER HACKER
(OXFORD)

Wittgenstein, Philosophy and Neuroscience

Monday, 27th of April, 18-20 h c.t. (Small Lecture Hall B01.019, Großhaderner Str. 2, 82152 Martinsried)

Public Lecture

„Philosophy and Scientism –
What cognitive neuroscience can, and what it cannot, explain“

Tuesday, 28th of April, 16-18 h c.t. (LMU Main Building M 210)

Workshop Philosophy and Neuroscience

„The neural antecedents to voluntary action: A conceptual analysis“

Wednesday, 29th of April, 18-20 h c.t. (LMU Main Building M 210)

Public Lecture: Dialogue

„Can different people have the same pain? A philosophical entertainment“

Thursday, 30th of April, 16-20 h c.t. (LMU Main Building D 113)

Wittgenstein Lecture and Workshop

„Metaphysics: from ineffability to normativity“

If you like to participate in the Tuesday workshop, please write to Stephan Sellmaier (sellmaier@lmu.de); if you want to join the lecture and workshop on Thursday, please register by mail to Thomas Oehl (thomas.oehl@lmu.de).